

Understood Betsy by Dorothy Canfield Fisher

Total running time: 03:57:53

Sickly and sheltered, nine-year-old Elizabeth Ann is horrified to hear she must be sent away to live with the "Putney cousins." According to Aunt Harriet, these mysterious relations are cold-hearted and stiff-necked, as well as heavy-handed when it comes to the delegation of children's chores. What will life at the Putney farm truly have in store for Betsy?
